Photography with Thomas Oliver

Mondays 3.30pm - 5.30pm -
Art Centre (V103) from 30 April
Seven-week course

Who: Our tutor, Thomas Oliver, is a photographic artist based in Brisbane. Oliver received his Bachelor of Photography with Honours from the Queensland College of Art and currently tutors at The Performing Art Conservatory.

What: This seven-week course will be split into two parts: history and present. In the first part, students will experiment with alchemy and analog processes as they watch their own images appear like magic on silver gelatin paper. Whilst in the second half of the course we look at photography now, and how to make the most from our 'smart' phone cameras.

By the end of course each student will have their own collection of unique photographic prints, and a new way to look at the world through a camera's lens.

Open to all secondary year levels 7-12
Max class size only 12 students
